Terms & Conditions

All training techniques used by Black Jack DTC are kind, fair and reward based. Class sizes are a maximum of 6 to 8 dogs per trainer to provide individual tuition and a relaxed environment. Classes are designed to be fun and rewarding for both dog and owner but in the interest of safety, responsibility and welfare it is important that the following terms and conditions are noted.

General terms and conditions:

- When coming to our training classes you commit yourself to dog friendly training methods. Harsh handling is not permitted.
- We expect all dogs to wear a normal collar and lead. Choke chains, check chains, prong collars, punitive methods and manhandling are not allowed.
- Dogs are to be kept on a lead in and around our training venues unless specifically requested by the trainer. All dogs must be kept under control and on a lead.
- We have a strict no fauling policy, which means that we expect the dogs not to urinate or defaecate on or near the field or on our agility equipment, barrels, or sheds. So please take your dog for a little walk before coming to class. In case of an accident make sure you have a poo bag with you to pick up after your dog.
- Black Jack DTC regrets that no responsibility can be taken for theft and damage to vehicles and contents left in our car park.
- No photography or video can be taken without the express permission of the owners of Blackjack DTC and all people involved in material. No publishing on social media is allowed without full consent of everyone involved.
- Dogs do bark, however excessive barking is not permitted as this will have a detrimental effect of the reputation of the centre and our ability to train in specific locations.

Payment terms

- We expect payment in full at the start of each month for the entire month. We regret refunds are not available apart from in exceptional circumstances.
- It is at Black Jack DTC's discretion to terminate an owner's place in a class if the owner does not pay, notify of cancellation of a lesson or displays unacceptable behaviour towards other owners, dogs or trainers.
- Payments for agility are in 10 week blocks, new clients are expected to pay for the first 12 puppy / beginner classes to show commitment to training and socialising the dog.

Cancellation of classes:

- In the unlikely event of the training session being cancelled by Black Jack DTC a catch up lesson will be given in return.
- refunds are not available apart from in exceptional circumstances
